

In April, 2017 the Russian Duo performed a program of traditional music for the Vivace Music series at the The Birmingham Temple in Farmington Hills, MI.

The musicians arrived with a carefully conceived program that was met with enthusiasm throughout our audience.

The skills of both Oleg Kruglyakov on the balalaika and Terry Boyarsky on the piano were indeed prodigious and exciting. Together they produced music of great dynamic range that touched the souls of our audience and gave them great joy. Everyone loved this concert.
